

Special Education Clinic

Description: The Special Education Clinic consists of pro bono attorneys and advocates from the local community who meet with parents of children with disabilities who need assistance with the special education process. There are two parts to the Clinic:

- Part 1: A training for parents that includes a brief overview of IDEA, with emphasis on the evaluation process, ARD meetings, and development of IEPs. Length of time: approx. 1 - 1.5 hours.
- Part 2: Following the training, parents are provided an opportunity to meet with an attorney and/or advocate to receive advice and information about their specific problem. Length of time: approx. 30 - 45 minutes.

How to Sign Up: The Clinic is hosted by Advocacy, Inc. at the United Way Building located at 50 Waugh Drive, Houston, TX 77007. The Spring Clinic schedule is as follows: Thursday, February 3rd from 11:00am - 2:00pm; Wednesday, March 9th from 4:00 - 7:00pm; Thursday, April 7th from 11:00am - 2:00pm; and Thursday, May 5th from 4:00 - 7:00pm. If you are a parent of a child with a disability who would like to sign up to attend the Clinic, please call our intake line toll free at (800) 880-0821.

We are also offering to bring the Clinic to other locations throughout Houston and the surrounding areas. If you or your organization would like us to bring the Clinic to you, please contact attorney and Equal Justice Works Fellow, Sarah Bellinger Beebe, at (713) 974-7691 to schedule a date/time.
